

National Day of Service and Remembrance

September 11, 2011

The first officially designated
National Day of Service and Remembrance

*This event will be marked by service projects in all 50 States!
Will you be one of the thousands to volunteer in your area?*

Those interested in serving on September 11 can find volunteer opportunities

at the

Gilroy Demonstration Garden and the Gilroy's Farmers Market

located in Downtown Gilroy at Egleberry and Monterey between 6th & 7th Street.

Volunteer hours will be between 10am and 4pm, lunch provided.

Visit with our local Fire Fighters

Neighborhood
BBQ sponsored by Gilroy
Demonstration
Garden

Opening ceremony 10am
by our local Veterans

Please contact Sue Middagh, Garden Volunteer Coordinator, at suemiddagh@yahoo.com for details about volunteering

The Gilroy Demonstration Garden is a community based project.
It is the host of the Gilroy Farmers' Market serving the Gilroy community.
These projects are coordinated by volunteers and support our local community.

Your support is greatly appreciated.